

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of an abuse of the public trust for partisan political gain.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Therefore,
promoting one
political party
whose policies serve a corporation's business interest is a complete
disservice to the public, who deserve
fair and balanced
reporting not fake
news manufactured
far from local communities.

The ownership of Sinclair is making a blatant political statement using the public airwaves, and they should allow equal time or stop
being such partisan
activists when it
suits their bottom line. They show why
the license renewal process needs to involve more than a
returned postcard.
Thank you.
